

Film Society Hosts 2009 Oscar Party!

It's become an annual tradition in Cape May. The Film Society, hosts of the "Best Film Festival" in New Jersey (as recognized by the JerseyArts People's Choice Award), rolls out the red carpet for its annual Oscar Party! "Movies are best watched with an audience around you to get the full effect," says Corbin Cogswell, Chair of the Society's Program Committee. "Same with Oscar! Why not share it with friends, food, and prizes!"

Cogswell notes that this year seems to be different from many others. "There's a lot of talk about who DIDN'T get the Oscar nod this year," he says. "It's so much better to share your sentiments in a social setting," he says. "That's why our Oscar Party will be buzz of the town!"

This year's party, a tradition for the Cape May Film Society, will be Sunday, February 22 in The Boiler Room at Congress Hall, beginning at 7:00 p.m. Tickets will be $25 for the general public and $20 for Film Society members. Includes beautiful spread of deserts and a chance to win great prizes from some of the top restaurants and shops in town!
