Friday Night Reception:

Meet the Writer, Director and Co-Star!

Diminished Capacity

Matthew Broderick and Alan Alda star in this the story of a Chicago journalist (Broderick) suffering from memory loss who returns to his rural hometown to bond with his Alzheimer's-impaired uncle Rollie (Alda) and his old flame. Meet writer Sherwood Kiraly (top picture, with Matthew Broderick) and Director Terry Kinney as well as co-star Heidi Neurauter.

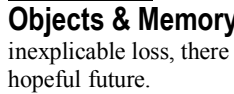

Seasons in the Valley

Hollywood veteran Elliott Gould lends his distinct voice to this gentle documentary exploring the symbiotic relationships between the apple farmers of NY's Hudson Valley and their Jamaican labor.

BuzzKill

Comedy about a struggling writer (Daniel Raymont) acquires fame in an unusual way when a notorious serial murderer, the Karaoke Killer (played by Saturday Night Live's Darrell Hammond), steals his car and a draft of his script.

Objects & Memory In the face of sudden disruption and inexplicable loss, there is a need to bridge the irreplaceable past with a hopeful future.

Dance on Film The global movements of this international festival of shorts (and feature documentary "African Dance") will astound enthusiasts and newcomers alike!

Paper Dreams This fantastic short film about a boy who escapes to his own world of paper airplanes (and the girl who befriends him) heads up a great shorts program Saturday afternoon.

Seize the Wedding Day After a "big tent" party at her house in Cape May Point, Chris Clemans invited anybody in the audience to host an event before the tent was taken down. She didn't know there would be a taker—and was there ever a taker!

Airplay From the fifties to the eighties to today, see the rise and fall of rock and roll as seen through the eyes of the DJs who brought the music to the fans!

SPECIAL PROGRAMS: We have a screenwriter's workshop on Friday, awards and a "Set in Cape May" Screenwriting Winner at Sunday's Brunch, and great parties all weekend long!
