Dear Parents (& Grandparents!):

If your child or grandchild hasn't been to an award-winning Cape May Young Filmmakers Summer Camp, I urge you to sign them up. Your young filmmaker will have a great time! And the films produced are fun and teach more than just how to film. These students learn how to be part of a team, overcome obstacles, and get a job done. It's a great experience!

Sincerely,
Sue Laudeman, Parent Liaison
