

Cape May Film Society Presents

Buried Treasures

Great Films You May Have Missed!

May 31
Touch of Evil

This mystery is considered to be one of the great movies of Orson Welles, who both directed and starred in it with Janet Leigh and Charlton Heston.

June 7
State & Main

David Mamet's feature tells of havoc wrought on a small town when a Hollywood film swoops in. Stars William Macy, Alec Baldwin, and Philip Seymour Hoffman.

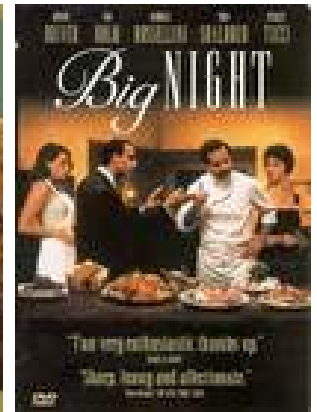

June 14
Sounder

Martin Ritt's adaptation of the Newberry Award winning novel stars Cicely Tyson, Paul Winfield, and Kevin Hooks. Sounder was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Picture.

June 21
The Boxer

Released after 14 years in prison for IRA acts, Danny (Daniel Day-Lewis) returns to find former flame Maggie (Emily Watson), raising her son alone as her husband is in prison.

June 28
Big Night

Preparations for a restaurant's big night hosting bandleader Louis Prima present behind-the-scenes comedy spiked with high drama. With Tony Shalhoub, Stanley Tucci, Minnie Driver, Isabella Rossellini

Featured Speaker: Hollywood Actor & Screenwriter JC Stinson

“These are great films that went unnoticed or have been forgotten—maybe because they were small films or were difficult to categorize. But these movies have reputations that only get stronger over time.”

All films start at 7:00 p.m. at Cape May Elementary School

Call for Details: 609-884-6700

Reduced Pricing for Cape May Film Society Members!