

INDEX OF FILMS

2009 Cape May Film Festival ~ November 20-22

Page references for full program in Exit Zero (also on this website)

And One for the Organizer: Created for the 48 Hour Film Project in New York, this is the story of a tortured old man who slips in and out of reality inside of a mental institution. Saturday, 1:00 p.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 14

Anything for You: The latest Gordon Vincent music video. Saturday, 11:00 a.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 10

Before I Wake: A man obsessed with life's most open-ended questions follows his dreams on a quest for inner peace. Saturday, 1:00 p.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 14

Black Maria Film Festival: Selections from the 28th Annual Black Maria Film Festival. Saturday, 3:00 p.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 22 & 24

Dance on Camera Film Festival: Selections from the Festival presented at Lincoln Center. Saturday, 3:30 p.m., Congress Hall Harrison Room. Pages 24 & 26.

Dream Day Films: At the 2009 Young Filmmakers Camp, students were given the theme "Dream Day" and asked to produce a short film from the title. Four unique films were produced. Saturday, 11:00 a.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 10

Flying Kites: An alumni of the Young Filmmaker Program, Chad Shagren produced and directed a film about an orphan in Kenya. Saturday, 11:00 a.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 10

Have You Heard: The Trouble with Gossip – Produced by the Woodbine Elementary School Film Club Saturday, 11:00 a.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 10

Junkie Nurse: Eric LaBudde is a junkie nurse caring for the old folks at the St. Joseph's Convalescent Home. Saturday Night, 8:00 p.m., Cape May City Hall Auditorium. Page 4

Looking For... Tracy Lawrence has returned to the dating scene after a long absence and is getting nowhere fast. Saturday, 2:45 p.m., Congress Hall Harrison Room. Page 20

Opposable Chums: "Competitive bird watching" may sound like an oxymoron, but it makes perfect sense to the participants of The World Series of Birding. Saturday, 11:00 a.m. and Sunday Matinee, 1:15 p.m., Congress Hall Harrison Room. Page 6

Plan, The: John Prosky stars in a film about two men who discuss the next step in The Plan. Saturday, 1:00 p.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 18

Plane Face: One man's quest to finish shaving in a surreal world. Saturday, 1:00 p.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 14

Unstrung: In 1980 Pat Martino moved from California to Philadelphia to live with two strangers: his parents. Saturday Night, 7:00 p.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 4

Raise the Net: Young Filmmakers produced this music video with help from Chad Shagren's "Flying Kites" footage for the global organization, "Malaria No More." Saturday, 11:00 a.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 10

Shoebox Redhead: Heartbreak inspires a surreal trip. Saturday, 1:00 p.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 12

Shoobies Guide to Surfing: When will shoobies get respect? Saturday, 1:00 p.m., Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 12

Strongman: Winner of "Best Feature Documentary" at the 2009 Slamdance Film Festival, Strongman has been described as "strangely beautiful" by Variety's John Anderson. Saturday night, 7:00 p.m., Congress Hall Harrison Room. Page 4

Surviving the Streets: Shot entirely in Newark, NJ, this "educational docudrama" provides a realistic view of teenage urban life and the choices that kids make when faced with gang violence. Saturday, 12:15 p.m., Congress Hall Harrison Room. Page 10

Triumph of William Henry Harrison, The: Rookie journalist Amanda Delacourt reveals the truth: William Henry Harrison faked his death! Narrated by Ed Asner. Saturday Night, 7:00 p.m. and Sunday Matinee, 2:30 p.m., Congress Hall Harrison Room. Page 6

Yanling's Oranges: Yanling's happiness is turned around when she discovers her husband's infidelity. Saturday, 1:00 p.m. Congress Hall Ballroom. Page 18

Yes Men Fix the World, The: Andy and Mike lie their way into big business conferences and major newscasts to pull off the world's most outrageous pranks. Saturday Night, 9:30 p.m., City Hall Auditorium, and Sunday, 4:00 p.m. Congress Hall Harrison Room. Page 6